LIVES LOST IN A FIRE.

At Least Ten Killed and Great Property Damage Done in Toledo. Tuledo, Sept. 20.—At least ten perso were killed and over half a million dollars' worth of property were destroyed tonight in one of the biggest fires that has visited this city in recent years. The big elevator of the Union Railroad Transportation Company was burned to the ground and only a half dozen men of the twenty working in the building at the time have been accounted for.

MISS GRACE PARKS, HAROLD PARKS. FRANK WAINWRIGHT. CHARLES KIEFER, SAMUEL ALEXANDER. JOHN DALBROWSKI, Three unidentified.

FRANK PARGELLIS, badly burned. W. J. PARKS, injured internally HAMILTON PARKS, fatally burned. W. C. JORDAN, budly burned.

- GARRETT, fatally injured.

The fire started at 7 o'clock wit an explosion that blew out the ends of the elevator, and which was felt all over the city The fire broke out in all stories simultaneously, and only the few persons on the first floor could make their escape, and these with great difficulty.

The elevator contained about 400,000 bushels of grain, and the employes were working tonight to hurry out a sixty-thousand bushel order

W. J. Parks, manager of the elevator, was in the building with his daughter Grace and sons Harold and Hamilton. Parks was blown out of the second story window a distance of a hundred feet. Grace ran out of the building, but died from burns. Harold, four years old, is in the ruins. None of the remains of the killed have been found except the body of Grace Parks.

The Union Elevator Company is capitalized at $250,000, and the buildings were insured for $122,000. The elevator was built in 1884 and this year was under contract to Paddock, Hodge & Co. The in-surance on the grain cannot be definitely learned, but it is said to be about $200,000. The firemen had a big battle on their hands. They recognized that they could do nothing with the building, so they devoted their efforts to saving the elevator and manufacturing establishments in the vicinity, and one of the bridges of the ore Railroad. Lake Shore Railroad.

While firemen were working near the fire, a portion of the roof fell, slipped to one aide and with it the body of a man. Desperate efforts were made to get the body, but the intense heat drove the fire men back. The body may shrivelling with the heat in plain view of thousands of spectators.

Some of the men killed were prominent in the city. Frank Van Hoosen was chief tor and had been in the business for years.

The firemen are still fighting the fire at midnight. The switching crews of four engines, working on the cars which were being londed, were in the elevator when the explosion occurred, but escaped with serious burns. STARTED IN A SAW MILL.

Fire Destroyed $5,000 Worth of Property on Water Street.

A fire which resulted in the destruction of the office, sawmill, and two-story stable of Carter & Clark, at Tenth and Water Streets southwest; the office of Tayfor Brothers, tugboat contractors, and the boathouse of H. BATTLE IN THE STREETS.

Omaha Police Capture Two Robber After Much Shooting.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 20.-In the gray of yesterday morning, along one of the public thoroughfares of Omaha, occurred a running battle between the police and two desperate bandits. When the chase was ended a tall and a short one were in custody.

They have terrorized all Omaha for time, and held up individuals, street cars and whole parties of persons with impunity. The bandits were John Riley and John McDonald, two criminals well known in several States as desperate men. The men held up nearly a dozen person in Omaha on Saturday night, and Sunday night crossed the river and stopped a crowded suburban train, shot the con-ductor and robbed the passengers. For-merly they confined their efforts to one or two crimes a week.

Their unusual activity aroused the po-lice. Sergt. Her, with three policemen, secured two of the fastest horses to be had, and began to drive around town in search of the robbers. He had heard that the men were in a carriage belong-ing to a notorious woman, and were re-solved to escape from Omaha.

The policemen by accident came upon the bandits as they passed through the center of the city. Each party recogniz-ed the other, and the chase was on. One bandit drove while the other stood up and fired at the officers, who in turn fired together into the buggy. The two buggies dashed through the city at an early hour, both policemen and robbers firing as they spad. In the outskirts of the city the bandits concluded to take to the underbrush, and stopped their car-riage for an instant. Before they could escape the policemen were upon them. Both fugitives were firing as the colhiston occurred. One was knocked sens-less by the concussion and the other threw up his hands after dropping his two revolvers, empty. Much stolen jewelry and money was captured a nine-pound whitefish. With a party of friends he was fishing off the dock at Wildey Street. The men noticed a commotion in the water a little distance out and in a few seconds saw a fish jump out of the water. It swam near the surface and was heading inshore Then one of Balls' friends said to him, jumped into the Hudson on a wager, and

DIVED AND CAUGHT BIG FISH.

A Man Captures a Nine-Pound Prize With His Hands. Tarrytown, N. Y., Sept. 20.-Henry Balls, of Valley Street, while fishing yesterday

'I'll bet you can't catch that fellow." "I'll bet a new fishing rod that I can, replied Balls, as he threw off his shoes and coat.

"What are you going to do?" asked his of friend. "Watch me," was all that Balls said.

The fish was very near the dock by this time, and without further ceremony Balls dived into the river. His friends all gazed on in amazement, Soon they saw Balls rising to the top with the fish clasped tightly in his hands. He held on to the fish and called for help. His friends threw him a rope, which he held on to and was pulled ashore. He had a hard fight and nearly fainted from exhaustion. In his wet clothes Balls walked into a nearby restaurant and sold his prize for 50 cents.

Price, forty-eight years old, daughter of the late Mrs. Fannie Price, of South Madison, N. J., was found dead in her bedroom on Sunday morning. She was fully dressed and was lying upon the floor. There was a bullet hole in her ter being the issuing of a warrant for the right temple, and a revolver with chamber empty was clinched in her hand. She had been dead for twelve hours. Miss She had been dead for twelve hours, airs Price was formerly active in church and Sunday school work, but of late had sel-dom left the house and had few friends who called upon her. She lived alone. She is supposed to have first tried to take her life with a shotgun, and, this failing, used the revolver.
